

Senior University Georgetown is a non-profit membership organization for persons over 50 years of age in the greater Georgetown community. It is dedicated to the proposition that lifelong learning is an essential component of a life of satisfaction and fulfillment, and it is committed to providing a variety of continuing education opportunities for its members. The mission of Senior University is to offer a diverse program of classes, lectures, travel activities, and other learning opportunities designed to provide intellectual stimulation, cultural experiences, and personal enjoyment. It is committed to the exchange of information and ideas led by volunteer instructors and lecturers in an atmosphere of free inquiry and discussion.

Senior University regularly offers (1) courses in two terms of six weeks each in the fall and winter, with one 60- to 90-minute class session per week, (2) a summer term of one week comprising ten lectures of 60 minutes each, (3) a program of lectures open free of charge to the public of all ages, and (4) a varied program of travel experiences in Texas and elsewhere in the nation and the world. Membership in Senior University is required to participate in any of these programs except the public lectures program. These programs require no examinations and generate no academic credit.

We welcome inquiries from prospective members, instructors, and lecturers.
